About CPAH:

Join us at Community Partners for Affordable Housing (CPAH) and be part of a team dedicated to supporting our growing organization, currently serving over 500 households in Washington County and SW Portland.

CPAH is dedicated not only to ensuring equitable access to housing, but also to building a team that reflects the diversity of our residents and represents a variety of backgrounds, perspectives, and skills. The more inclusive we are, the better our work will be.

Position Overview:

The Resident Services Coordinator provides direct program implementation of CPAH’s resident services programs and activities, focusing on eviction prevention and housing stabilization, at designated affordable housing sites. This position will work closely in collaboration with the apartment property manager, service partner organizations supporting residents, and CPAH’s Youth Program Coordinator. This position is part of a larger Resident Services Team, with multiple Resident Service Coordinators across other properties. Tasks include providing resource and referral information, coordinating with on-site property management and community-based services, organizing community building activities, tracking outcomes and compiling reports, partnership development, supporting volunteers and agency interns and assisting with the Resident Advisory Committee.

CPAH does not discriminate against any person on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation or gender identity, disability (physical, mental or developmental), familial or marital status, or national origin, in admission or access to, or treatment of, residents, employees or volunteers in any of its projects or programs.

You will spend your time working at three different apartment buildings in Tigard providing eviction prevention and housing stabilization for families. This includes on-site resident services office hours, community building, and connecting residents to important resources in the community.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Provide community resources to households to assist with eviction prevention and housing stabilization. Follow up on communication from property management regarding any tenants at risk of eviction.
- Coordinate with on-site property management to address resident issues.
- Coordinate closely with services provider(s) providing case management for residents living in CPAH properties to support housing stability
- Coordinate and implement community building activities as well as health and wellness activities for residents to build a positive community culture.
- Understand and support the needs of vulnerable families living in affordable housing. Respond to needs as they arise through a variety of approaches including information sharing, community events, individual support in connecting to community resources.
- Document activities and outcomes and assist management in compiling reports.
- Develop partnerships with community partners.
- Provide guidance to agency interns.
- Support the CPAH Youth Program by working closely with the Youth Coordinator to plan and implement activities for youth and families onsite.

Qualifications:

To be successful a Resident Services Coordinator, you will need to meet the minimum qualifications and commit to building an inclusive work environment.

- At least two years' experience providing direct service in a social service setting, including work with families and youth.
- Experience working with diverse populations providing culturally responsive services.
- Experience and ability to work with people who have housing barriers, challenges, and are vulnerable.
- Experience collaborating with team members, community partners and other service providers to meet resident needs.
- Desire and ability to work with affordable housing residents in an enriching, positive, and safe environment.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills, including ability to effectively communicate with upset individuals.
- Experience using resident centered, trauma informed, and de-escalation practices.
- Proven ability to work with efficiency and flexibility.
- Passionate about CPAH's mission and impact.
- Ability to maintain appropriate professional boundaries with residents.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Word
- Ability to enter and review data.

CPAH does not discriminate against any person on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation or gender identity, disability (physical, mental or developmental), familial or marital status, or national origin, in admission or access to, or treatment of, residents, employees or volunteers in any of its projects or programs.

As an equal opportunity employer, CPAH is committed to building a culturally diverse and inclusive environment and we are actively seeking to recruit a diverse applicant pool.

Bilingual and/or multicultural individuals are encouraged to apply. CPAH values experience working with historically underserved populations and communities of color and offers a pay differential for staff who can speak languages relevant to our resident community.

Studies have shown that women and people of color are less likely to apply for jobs unless they meet every one of the qualifications listed. We are most interested in finding the best candidate for the job, and that candidate may be one who comes from a less traditional background. If you meet key qualifications for the job, and believe you would be the best fit, we encourage you to apply; please use your cover letter or introductory email to explain how you will accomplish parts of the job for which you have less experience. If you are unsure whether you meet the qualifications of this position, please feel free to contact us.

CPAH values passion around affordable housing. And not to be understated, a sense of humor and desire to be part of a learning and growing team.

Unique Job Conditions:

Requires occasional participation in evening and weekend meetings or events.

Occasionally required to lift more than 25 pounds.

This job is primarily performed in an office setting and in apartment buildings where residents live, with some availability to work remotely.

To Apply:

Both a resume and a cover letter are required. Cover letters describe your interest and qualifications (including equivalent experience) for this position, your commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion, and your perspective on affordable housing in our community.

To apply for this job, email your cover letter and resume to jobs@cpahoregon.org.
